Each member of the Calgary Parrot Head Club is responsible for his or her own actions and shall treat phellow members, guests, hosts, and their property with respect. Members agree to abide by all local, provincial, and federal laws. Members also agree to abide by all bylaws of the Calgary Parrot Head Club.

Any member who hosts a Happy Hour must give the Treasurer or President the money raised in order for the charitable contribution to be given to the charity from the Calgary Parrot Head Club and not from the host him/her self.

Membership in the Calgary Parrot Head Club does not give the members permission to use Jimmy Buffett’s name, song titles, lyrics, or names of businesses or other trademarked, copyrighted, or reserved material owned by Jimmy Buffett, nor can any member use the logo of the Calgary Parrot Head Club or Parrot Heads In Paradise Inc.

Since Parrot Heads have been known to enjoy a cold one, we encourage all members to use a designated driver or taxi cab. The club or any executive or board member will not be responsible for anyone who has enjoyed too many libations while attending a Calgary Parrot Head Club function or event.

All members of the Calgary Parrot Head Club must adhere to all guidelines and bylaws set by our parent Parrot Heads in Paradise (PHIP) : <https://phip.com/other-important-information> .

This contribution, or membership fee, is non-tax-deductible as a charitable donation for Federal or Provincial Income Tax purposes.

By signing this document, you agree to the above.
